Read My Mind

Alexz Johnson

Where you've been? I've been fine what you see it's been some time everywhere I go the light is gone everywhere I go the light is gone

I'm OK living a life been to the moon seen paradise everywhere you go I come along everywhere you go I come along

Everything I do is feeling wrong no matter what I do the sun is gone putting off the lie I'm fine always on time
telling you I'm better off alone

If that's what I told you, it's a lie will it be alright?
can you see me through this times
I don't know why
I'm dying inside
if only you could read my mind

Oh my God you look the same isn't true? we never change everywhere I go there is no sun everywhere I go there is no sun

Everything I do is feeling wrong
no matter what I do the sun is gone
putting off the lie I'm fine
always on time
telling you I'm better off alone

If that's what I told you, it's a lie
will it be alright?
can you see me through this times
I don't know why
I'm dying inside
if only you could read my mind

How are you to ever know
How are you to ever know
How are you to ever know
How are you to ever know
