

Right Now

Alexz Johnson

I never knew the situation
Didn't think that it was one of those kinds
From a different generation
You can't deny this is a stranger time
A stranger time
A stranger time

You think you're safe behind a passport
You were shaking in the airport line
Telling stories you were hearing
You can't deny someone could lose their mind
Lose their mind
Lose their mind

I don't wanna go, right now (Right now)
I don't wanna go, hell no (Right now)
Tell me what we're fighting for
I don't wanna fight your war
Right now

Suited up for the occasion
A Final dance before you say goodbye
No reason for a celebration
They're all crying but you don't know why
Don't know why
You don't know why

You hear a siren in the distance
Off the shore you see the sun go down
Was this the reason for existence?
Or just a way to make your father proud
Your father proud
Your father proud

I don't wanna go, right now (Right now)
I don't wanna go, hell no (Right now)
Tell me what we're fighting for
I don't wanna fight your war
I don't wanna go, right now (Right now)
I don't wanna go, hell no (Right now)
Tell me what we're fighting for
I don't wanna fight your war
Right now
Right now
Right now
Right now
Right now
