

Tears of a Dragon

Alexz Johnson

Time is changing, it's changing, we know
Hard to see it, believe it, let go
Lighting up the sky when it rains
Fireworks spelling out your name
I don't even know where I am
Watching as the lights all change

Tears of a Dragon
Rise of the ocean
Whatever may come no knowing
Tears of a Dragon
Baby we're holding out for it
It's the time of the thunder
Fear and the wonder
Baby my hands are shaking
Tears of a Dragon
Tears of a Dragon

We see is coming, it's coming so quick
Falling towers, the smoke is so thick
Lighting up the sky when it rains
Fireworks spelling out your name
I don't even know who I am
Watching as the lights all change

Tears of a Dragon
Rise of the ocean
Whatever may come no knowing
Tears of a Dragon
Baby we're holding out for it
It's the time of the thunder
Fear and the wonder
Baby my hands are shaking
Tears of a Dragon

It's hard to see it even right before my eyes
I can't explain with the sun setting in the sky
Never understood no matter what was written then
But you look it in the eye with the hair standing on your skin
