

This Broken

Alexz Johnson

Did you get up when you fell down?
Knew the truth but didn't make a sound?
Knew the right but chose the wrong?
They figured you out before too long

Have you been high on someone's fall?
Were you there but stood behind a wall?
Have you ever felt so small?
Is there any point at all?

Is someone's heart this broken?
Like you're buried, you've been buried beneath the ground

You've got gifts you haven't used
Maybe pain so deep you'll never lose
Was it up for you to choose?
Or has the story chosen you?

Is someone's heart this broken?
Like you're buried, you've been buried beneath the ground
Is someone's heart this broken?
Like you're waiting, you're just waiting to be found?

Mine is too
Mine is too

Is someone's heart this broken?
Are we waiting, like you're waiting?
