

Retrograde

Aleyna Tilki

Every night I prayed for, prayed for clarity
All while you were lying right there next to me
You barely even noticed I was losing sleep
You barely even noticed you were losing me

Don't say shit to me
Don't say a word to me
Don't ask me to change
Don't want your heart to break

Words don't hurt no more
I heard it all before
Don't ask me to change
Don't want your heart to break

Don't want your heart to break, don't want your heart to break
Ain't going backwards now, ain't going backwards now
Ain't doing retrograde, ain't doing retrograde
Ain't going backwards now, ain't going backwards now

Is it just that you're so damn oblivious?
Or is it just that you don't take me serious?
Counting my excuses, more than millions
I'm done with it, done with it, done with
I don't even know what I'm doing here

Don't say shit to me
Don't say a word to me
Don't ask me to change
Don't want your heart to break

Words don't hurt no more
I heard it all before
Don't ask me to change
Don't want your heart to break

Don't want your heart to break
Don't want your heart to break
Ain't going backwards now, ain't going backwards now
Ain't doing retrograde, ain't doing retrograde
Ain't going backwards now, ain't going backwards now

Ain't doing retrograde
Ain't going backwards now
Ain't doing retrograde
