

Teenage Mona Lisa

Alfie Castley

Feel like I'm talking to a teenage Mona Lisa
So beautiful, yet so unsatisfied
And when I take a trip to Paris out to meet her
If she don't care, at least I'll know I tried

Think I'm getting tired of these games now
At least the way that they play out
When your mind is on the wrong side
When I'm all alone with my thoughts out
And the gallery walls how
My heart will start to realize

That I don't really love you
Do you think that I know you?

Feel like I'm talking to a teenage Mona Lisa
So beautiful, yet so unsatisfied
And when I take a trip to Paris out to meet her
If she don't care, at least I'll know I tried

The feeling's getting overwhelming
My heart was cold but now its melting
Do you think that it's even worth a try?
And I know that I might be selfish
When I'm up in my head, I'm helpless
But I just can't keep pushing these aside

Even though I want you
I'll move on if I have to

Feel like I'm talking to a teenage Mona Lisa
So beautiful, yet so unsatisfied
And when I take a trip to Paris out to meet her
If she don't care, at least I'll know I tried

Feel like I'm talking to a teenage Mona Lisa
So beautiful, yet so unsatisfied
And when I take a trip to Paris out to meet her
If she don't care, at least I'll know I tried

Feel like I'm talking to a teenage Mona Lisa
So beautiful, yet so unsatisfied
