

The Idea of You

Alfie Castley

I can't hold
My hands are being pushed too far
I'm scared of
The demons that you showed me in the dark
I don't know what it is
I keep on coming back to us
Though I miss myself
The pain just hits me like a drug

I'm scared of loving someone that's not you
I guess I'm still holding on to what I thought you were
There's versions of me that only you knew
But I'm never coming back
And that's the truth

The memory's fading
Our time is up
The world moved on
And it forgot about us
The season's changing
And the sun's come up
The love we had is turning into dust
My mind's erasing
The idea of you
But I can't replace
All of the shit we've been through
A thousand faces
None comparing to
When I realised I
Was slowly losing you

I can't blame you
For thinking we could fall apart
But it doesn't change
How you left me with a broken heart
Do you really still need me
Be honest with me now
'Cause I'm tired of hiding
My time is running out

I'm scared of loving someone that's not you
I guess I'm still holding on to what I thought you were
There's versions of me that only you knew
But I'm never coming back
And that's the truth

The memory's fading
Our time is up
The world moved on
And the sun's come up
The love we had is turning into dust

My mind's erasing
The idea of you

When I realised I
Was slowly losing you

I'm scared of loving someone that's not you
I guess I'm still holding on to what I thought you were
And that's the truth

The memory's fading
The world moved on
And the sun's come up
The love we had is turning into dust
My mind's erasing
The idea of you

But I can't replace
A thousand faces
When I realised I
Was slowly losing you

A thousand faces
When I realised I was slowly losing you
