

Obvious Guy

Alfie Templeman

I don't wanna be the one to say goodbye
I don't wanna be an obvious guy
I don't wanna say everything twice
I don't wanna be an obvious guy

It's like I'm lost, I'm at your cost
All the seconds turn into a day
I'd like to change, but I can't say
What you've done to make me feel this way

I'm not satisfied, I speak my mind
It's hard to find, a love that's felt this way
I can't say, it changes every day
I'm not satisfied, I speak my mind
It's hard to find
I don't wanna be that guy

I don't wanna be the one to say goodbye
I don't wanna be an obvious guy
I don't wanna say everything twice
I don't wanna be an obvious guy

I'm feeling numb; it's getting dumb
How am I to promise all this time?
I want to feel something that's real
Something that I always wished was mine

I'm not satisfied, I speak my mind
It's hard to find, a love that's felt this way
I can't say, it changes every day
I'm not satisfied, I speak my mind
It's hard to find
I don't wanna be that guy

I don't wanna be that
I don't wanna be that
I don't wanna be that

I don't wanna be the one to say goodbye
I don't wanna be an obvious guy
I don't wanna say everything twice
I don't wanna be an obvious guy
