

Dispossession

Algiers

Run around, run away from your America
While it burns in the streets
I been here standing on top of the mountain
Shouting down what I see, ugh
Seen the pig with the pop out of confusion
That he tried to release
Seen a sun coming over the horizon
Straight across from the east

Seen the kings and the soldiers
Overthrown and consumed
Wanna tell it to everybody underground:
Freedom is coming soon

Everybody wants to break down
(You can't run away
You can't run away)
What more is it gonna take now?
(You can't run away
You can't run away)
Till you realize
Dispossession (you can't run away) is coming for you

Here they come back again from the shadows
From the jaws of the beast, mmh
Here they come from the pages of Infiniti
Shaking what you believe, mmh
Here they come from the ashes of ashes
So immune to defeat, hey
Here they come with a technicolor antidote
For your Hopes and your Dreams, mmh

We'll be there waiting for a while
With a sword on a throne
Wanna tell it to everybody underground:
Freedom is coming soon

Dispossession
Is coming for you

Everybody wants to break down
(You can't run away
You can't run away)
What more is it gonna take now?
(You can't run away
You can't run away)
Till you realize
Dispossession (you can't run away) is coming for you
Is coming for you, now

Everybody wants to break down
(You can't run away
You can't run away)
How long is it gonna take now?
(You can't run away
You can't run away)
Till you realize

Dispossession (you can't run away) is coming for you

What's that over the horizon?

(No, don't go back)

On the ground, at your feet

(No, don't go back)

Reaching up to pull your under

(No, don't go back)

Hidden eyes when you sleep

(No, don't go back) hey

An asylum made of terror

(No, don't go back)

And a fate made of glass

(No, don't go back)

We are the blade and the groove that come together

We are the rain and the fire that's coming down

(Away, away) away, away, away

(Away, away) away, away, away

(Away, away) away, away, away

Everybody wants to break down

(You can't run away

You can't run away)

How much more is it gonna take now?

(You can't run away

You can't run away)

Till you realize

Dispossession (you can't run away) is coming for you

(You can't run away) yeah-yeah

(You can't run away

You can't run away)

Everybody wants to break down

(You can't run away

You can't run away)

How much longer is it gonna, gonna take now?

(You can't run away

You can't run away)

Till you realize

Dispossession (you can't run away) is coming for you-ooh

(You can't run away) hey, hey-hey-hey

(You can't run away) everybody wants to break down, now

(You can't run away) ooh!

(You can't run away) how much more is it gonna take now?

(You can't run away) yeah

(You can't run away) how much longer?

(You can't run away) how much longer,

Until you realize?

(You can't run away)

It is coming for you

(You can't run away)

It's coming for you, now
