

The Cycle / The Spiral: Time To Go Down Slowly

Algiers

Oh sugar, I go lost inside it till there ain't nothing to gain
I can't stop going in and out of focus while you wait for the change
This is total war on a promise
Wail against the wall
No, it's never over
And it never ends

We are the cycle that begins

We are the spiral to the end

We are the cycle that begins

We are the spiral to the end

Oh, baby I know how to die
I don't know how to forgive
I cried out for power

Someday I will find it

While you wait for the end
This is total war on a promise
Wail against the wall
No it never ends
It takes you over and over...

The cycle that begins
We are the spiral to the end

We are the cycle that begins

We are the spiral to the end

Until the second it's over
That's twice you died and you'll die some more

Until the second it's over
That's twice you died and you'll die some more

On the second it's over
When He says it's over

Time to go down now slowly
Time to go now, where everything's lost

You'll find Hell where you fought love

You'll find Hell when it falls apart
