Tap Tap Away, Cyber bully boys
Kicking up rumpus and making up noise
Cause it's only you out there, talking to yourself
Bully, your not getting through to anybody else

An unpleasant little cyber troll who is scared to show his face
Feeling fewer inhibitions in his private little place
Where he remains anonymous with little fear of consequence
And his viciousness of his internet discourse
Obsessed with his own opinions of course

Tap Tap Away, Cyber bully boys
Kicking up rumpus and making up noise
Cause it's only you out there, talking to yourself
Bully, your not getting through to anybody else

When your mist came down and it was red
You have to live with what you said
Screaming madly through your fingertips
Words that would have burnt your lips

Tap Tap away, Cyber bully boys
Kicking up rumpus and making up noise
Cause it's only you out there, talking to yourself

Bully, your not getting through to anybody else

You laid bare your dirty plan
That would have shamed a better man
And you slipped up so readily
Exposed yourself for all to see

Tap Tap away, Cyber bully boys
Kicking up rumpus and making up noise
Cause it's only you out there, talking to yourself
Bully, your not getting through to anybody else

Tap Tap away, Cyber bully boys
Kicking up rumpus and making up noise
Cause it's only you out there, talking to yourself
Bully, your not getting through to anybody else

Your running up your mouth, cyber bully boys
Your running up your mouth, cyber bully boys
Your running up your mouth, cyber bully boys
