

Talking Blackbird

Ali Campbell

Come back
I heard a word about a blackbird
She made a little nest
I love the way she lined with
The feathers from her breast
She laid a little egg
You know she only managed one
She sat and she waited
For a little chick to come

The weeks went by
The days grew long
She getting the yard
She sang a sweet song