

Strangers Again

Ali Gatie

We went from strangers to friends and now we're strangers again
I got a stranger in bed, tryna fill the hole you left
I got you stuck in my head, all the things that I said, I regret
I regret

I should've known better, can't believe I didn't even see you
For the person that you was, I saw what I wanna see
Then I got blinded by your love, got harder to believe
The only one I love, was the one that's hurtin' me
I should've known better, I got played, yeah, I was dumb
You the reason that my heart is cold, the reason that I'm numb
You're the reason I tell everyone, "I wanna be alone"
What's the point of meetin' someone that I'll never trust
You the reason I can never fall in love with someone new
You broke me when you told me I wasn't enough for you
You the reason I mess up every relationship I have
The trust you took from me is somethin' I'll never get back

And I know, there's some things you know
That nobody else can know, oh

We went from strangers to friends and now we're strangers again
I got a stranger in bed, tryna fill the hole you left
I got you stuck in my head, all the things that I said, I regret
I regret

Readin' all these messages you've sent to me
Sayin' that we're meant to be
Now I'm here just wishin' you'd be textin' me
If I had known that you were fightin' demons while you're next to me
I would've done more to protect the one protectin' me
Sharin' more than time, tradin' energies, you my puzzle piece
Ever since you left, I feel like I been missin' me
Can't help, think someone else the reason you're forgettin' me
Sometimes it's easier to leave if you're my enemy
Our love was only visual
Baby, we connected on the physical, never on the spiritual
Maybe that's the reason that we're lost individuals
Tryna find ourselves in each other made it difficult
Baby, it's just pitiful
Things turned around, turned cynical
Don't know the reason but I know that it's not you or me, it's us

We went from strangers to friends and now we're strangers again
I got a stranger in bed, tryna fill the hole you left
I got you stuck in my head, all the things that I said, I regret
I regret
