

Why

Ali Gatie

Why?
Yeah, baby, why?
Baby, why?
Yeah, baby, why?

They only tell you what you wanna hear
They never tell you how they really feel (Conversation)
Baby tell me what's the fucking deal
Why, why can't you keep it real? ([?])

Why, why can't you keep it real?
(Tell me, tell me why) Why, why can't you keep it real?
(Baby, tell me, tell me why) Lies all the time, can't keep it real
(Baby, why you) Them lies all the time, how do you feel?

I'm feeling, feeling hella faded
I'm feeling, feeling like I made it
The people, people, they been hating
But I'm just waiting meditated
But I love to work, yeah, I love to grind
Thinking 'bout me, thinking 'bout you, how we gon' shine
I've been thinking, you been trippin', baby you gon' act blind
I've been thinkin', when I'm winnin' you ain't never seen me shine
You never like to work, I was workin' every night
You was gettin' hella mad, cause you knew that I was right
I was thinking about the plan, I was tryna be the guy
You was tryna slow me down, I never knew why

They only tell you what you wanna hear
They never tell you how they really feel
Baby tell me what's the fucking deal
Why, why can't you keep it real?

Why, why can't you keep it real?
Why, why can't you keep it real?
Lies all the time, can't keep it real
Them lies all the time, how do you feel?

Tell me why I gotta change everything
That I'm doing for the same girl, you know you've been hating with
And I think that you just complain, girl
I don't think you use your mind, lately you don't use your brain, but
I'm just really tryna think about it, think about the rings
You know that I've been tryna get it, I've been in it for the rings
You know that ever since I started, I've been going in and Baby, you've been cold hearted, loving you the same (Girl, I just don't get it)

They only tell you what you wanna hear
They never tell you how they really feel
Baby tell me what's the fucking deal
Why, why can't you keep it real?

Why, why can't you keep it real?
Why, why can't you keep it real?
Lies all the time, can't keep it real
Them lies all the time, how do you feel?
