

Woke Up

Ali Gatie

Woke up to see how it is
Everybody broke tryna live like they rich
Got a broken home but the home worth a mil
Yeah they worry bout the home never worry bout the kids
Worry bout the rent gotta worry bout the bills
If money buy happiness I guess the price kills
I guess the price kills
If money buy happiness I guess the price kills

People talk but ain't no body do shit
I'm with my brothers yeah I did it on some crew shit
The money talking and the money talking stupid
And its the language that I speak and its fluent

Learned to be the best ain't something you can chose
I was born a winner no one taught me how to lose
I was born a winner it's the only thing I do
And it's hard not to win when you got nothin else to lose

I been a winner since I learned to count to two
I been a winner I been spitting in the booth
I ain't never tell a lie
I been a winner cause I'm sticking to the truth

Hard life growing up coulda been harder
Troubled child never got along with my father
Dreams too big no one ever seen farther
I dreamed in my sleep till my sleep don't bother

Woke up to see how it is
Everybody broke tryna live like they rich
Got a broken home but the home worth a mil
Worry bout the home never worry bout the kids
Worry bout the rent gotta worry bout the bills
If money buy happiness I guess the price kills
Yeah I guess the price kills
If money buy happiness I guess the price kills

That's just how it is
I remember nights I was tryn get rich
I remember nights yeah they went quick
But I guess that's just how it is

I guess that's just how it is
I was stupid chasing bands tryn get rich
Now I'm thinking why I was thinking such a thing
Everybody thought that I was Finna quit
Now I seen the bands yeah they coming in
Tryna change all my plans how I live
Now I really under stand how it is
Chasing money rubber bands not a thing

Woke up to see how it is
Everybody broke tryna live like they rich
Got a broken home but the home worth a mil
Worry bout the home never worry bout the kids
Worry bout the rent gotta worry bout the bills

If money buy happiness I guess the price kills
Yeah I guess the price kills
If money buy happiness I guess the price kills

Woke up to see how it is
Everybody broke tryna live like they rich
Got a broken home but the home worth a mil
Worry bout the home never worry bout the kids
Worry bout the rent gotta worry bout the bills
If money buy happiness I guess the price kills
Yeah I guess the price kills
If money buy happiness I guess the price kills
