

Her

Alice Chater

I always try to brace myself
To see you out with somebody else
Thinking 'bout what could have been
Watching you kiss her like I wish it was me
I know

I know she's beautiful, yeah it's true
Every head turns when she walks in the room
She's so fucking perfect, she's got it all
She's like a star and I'm invisible

Cause I'm standing right in front of you baby
Tears falling out of my eyes
Cause I'm standing right in front of you baby
Wishing I was her, tonight

I shouldn't have come but I couldn't resist
But the damage is done now I'm gonna get drunk like she don't exist
Thinking about what we could've been
Imagining his arms not around her but there around me
I know

I know she's beautiful, yeah it's true
Every head turns when she walks in the room
She's so fucking perfect, she's got it all
She's like a star and I'm invisible

I wish it was different but I
I'm stood here pretending while you're
Dancing together [?]

I know she's beautiful, yeah it's true
Every head turns when she walks in the room
She's so fucking perfect, she's got it all
She's like a star and I'm invisible

Cause I'm standing right in front of you baby
Tears falling out of my eyes
Standing right in front of you baby
Wishing I was her, tonight
