

Stolen Prayer

Alice Cooper

Gm Eb Gm Eb F D

Gm B Eb Ab

1. I walk the streets alone on feeble bones I ride

Gm B Eb Ab

my sins are eched in stoneI got no place to hide

B Gm Ab Eb

well, I was unshakablein what I did believe

Gm B Eb Ab

I feel so breakablebut have I been deceived

2. You showed me your paradiseand your carnival of souls but my heart keeps telling methat ain't the place to go well, I'm not invincibleso I want you to leave well, I'm so convinciblebut have I been deceived

B Eb

R: I take your words and try them onyeah, it's a perfect fit, boy

you tell me one size fits us allyeah, like an old straight jacket

B Db

well, tell me why I'm so afraid

Db

all my words are spoken

B

all my words are spoken

all my words are spoken

Eb Ab

in a stolen prayer

3. I remember yesterdaywhen things were black and white never thought I'd get confusedon what was wrong and right well, I'm not unbreakable with armor on my skin well, it's not unthinkableI could be fooled again

R: Well, I take your words and try them onyeah...

(Solo)

D C D C

You steal another minute of my lifeyou cut a little deeper with your knife

B Ab Ab

you steal a little breath from my airand you don't care

Eb Db

and even though I'm chokin'all my words are spoken

B Eb

I take your words and try them onyeah, it's a perfect fit, boy

you tell me one size fits us allyeah, like an old straightjacket

take this world and try it onman, you're lookin' good boy

stick you neck out on the blockso you won't miss nothing

stretch your finger, grab your hair don't you feel like screaming

feel the blood rush from your veins now you're a perfect zombie

B

Db

now I'm down on my knees

Db

all my words are spoken

B

all my words are spoken

B

all my words are spoken

Ab

all my words are spoken

Eb

all my words are spoken
