

Kiss Me

Alice Donut

Did you miss me?
Did you miss me?
I think you missed me
I haven't thought of you at all
Did you miss me?
Did you miss me?
I know you missed me
I haven't thought of you at all
You look perfect
You looks so so perfect
So perfect like a dream
On the cover of a magazine
But please don't speak
Don't throw it away
We both know you've got nothing to say
Kiss, kiss me
Kiss, Kiss me
I've been searching
I've been searching
Investigating recommended books
And depositions
Conversations, blurbs and graphs
For any word, sentence, paragraph
Any independent clause
Any hint of the original cause
Any deviated
Derivated
Arrogated
Irrigated
Marinated
Venerated pause
I'm still here reworking every word
Thinking of anything about you
I might have heard
It's telling
You coming from behind
It's fitting you should call
I haven't thought of you at all
Kiss, Kiss me
Kiss, Kiss me
