

When the Sun Rose Again

Alice In Chains

Run, run 'til you drop
Hide, everyone knows
We all trade in 'never-befores'
Selling out for the score

Pray, squeal when you're caught
Cry, it's not my fault
Time to trade in 'never-befores'
Selling out for the score

[Chorus:]
Seems you prophesized
All of this would end
Were you burned away
When the sun rose again?

Hate, long wearing thin
Negative, all you've been
Time to trade in 'never-befores'
Selling out for the score

[Chorus]

Seems you prophesized
All of this would end
Were you burned away
When the sun rose again?

[Chorus]
