

Calm the fuck down
And unclench your fists
I can't see you through the mist
How did it come to this?

Wipe the tears
From inside your head
Your eyes are looking dead
Was it something I said?

Take back those words
I'm not as strong as I look
It's my soul that you shook
And my heart that you took

Leave me in my misery
Hopefully I'll forget you someday
I can't stay
I have to stop my soul's decay

You've taken all my dignity
It's clear to me that this ain't child's play
I'll be on my way
Before my world turns grey

Hey! Hey you!
Yes, you standing there
Is this fair?
Or would you give me care

Hey! Hey you!
Yes, you with the smile
Would you take me under your wing
For a while?

Hey! Hey you!
Yes, you standing there
Is this fair?
Or would you give me care

Hey! Hey you!
Yes, you with the smile
Would you take me under your wing
For a while?
