

Oblivion

Alice Phoebe Lou

There's no need to run, I'm flung into oblivion
No time, no space, I'm in between

When I opened my eyes, she was there, and her skin was golden
I took her hands and said, "I'm happy to be back here with you"
I stop feeling lonely when I look at you
I felt the whole world crumble, am I crumbling too?

I was sitting with some thoughts that felt bigger than I could feel
When you're inside your home for too long, well, the world don' t feel real

When I opened my eyes, she was there, and her skin was golden
I took her hands and said, "I'm happy to be back here with you"
I stop feeling lonely when I think of you
I felt the whole world crumble, am I crumbling too?
