

Drinking Song Interlude

Alice Russell

I'm gonna take a little sip and drink it down this thing I feel
I'll touch you now
When I hit your head change everything my influence
Fall to the ground

Time and time again
Your love falls from above
Twice and twice again
For another one

But you're all the way my heart
My heart just froze away
Then I slip and tumble
Unto the eyes

I'm gonna take a little sip and drink it down this thing I feel
I'll touch you now
When I hit your head change everything my influence
Fall to the ground
