Hopeless Me

Alicia Moffet

I used to feel so lost
In this sea, this sea filled with demons
I was blinded by the bad, the fake, the dark, but you
You saw the good in the broken version of me

You saved the hopeless me
You saved the broken me
Now every single heartbreak
And every single scar makes sense
Cause it led to you
You saved the hopeless me

I used to feel so scared
To be used, bruised and defeated
I was blinded by the lying eyes
The broken promises
But you, you stood by me

You saved the hopeless me
You saved the broken me
Now every single heartbreak
And every single scar makes sense
Cause it led to you
You saved the hopeless me

(Oh, hopeless me, oh)
(You saved the hopeless me)

You saved the hopeless me
You saved the broken me
Now every single heartbreak
And every single scar makes sense
Cause it led to you
You saved the hopeless me
