

Strangers

Alicia Moffet

You've been on my mind
Maybe it's time to say it to face to face
A year went by
So many things changed but you, you feel the same to me

I thought you'd be there beside me
I thought you'd meet her when I did

Now I'm just trying to figure out
Is it good as it is

But Where were you when I was bleeding
Why'd you leave right when I needed you
Do you even know how it feels
To have to heal on your own
Yeah maybe I should've known
That we're better off as strangers

It still feels weird
I can't just call you up and tell you how we've been

I had a feeling you'd let go
When something better would come along
And look at where we are now

Now I'm just trying to figure out
Is it good as it is
Is it better as it is?

But where were you when I was bleeding
Why'd you leave right when I needed you
Do you even know how it feels
To have to heal on your own
Yeah maybe I should've known
That we're better off as strangers

Better off as strangers
Better off as strangers

But where were you when I was bleeding
Why'd you leave right when I needed you
Do you even know how it feels
To have to heal on your own
Yeah maybe I should've known

Where were you when I was bleeding
Why'd you leave right when I needed you
Do you even know how it feels
To have to heal on your own
Yeah maybe I should've known
That we're better off as strangers
