

Gimme the Wheel

Alina Baraz

You should come ov'
Watch episodes
Your favorite show
We'll be alone
Clothes on the floor
Stay to the morn
Get in the zone
Boy, get off your phone
Just say you gotta go
We could lay low
You should come ov'

'Cause you give endlessly
Yeah, you do everything
But I need you to hand it over
Gonna get you undone
Gonna show you how it's done
Yeah, I need you to hand it over

Give me the wheel
I wanna steer, I wanna show you a place
Say you been needin' a break
I'm gonna make it okay
Give me the wheel
I wanna hear, I wanna hear 'bout your day
You ain't been in a good place
I'm gonna take you away

Give me the wheel
Let me take it from here
Give me the wheel
You got nothing to fear
Give me the wheel, babe

Baby
Let's talk about it on autopilot
Click it two times, it goes on its own (See)
You did that thing to me, I was drivin'
Don't recommend tryin' this at home (Woah)
I'm kinda country, you love my slurs
I stretch you out like my Es and Rs
Don't be 'round here, I come through for her
Seen the boy rise while I lean on her
Hate bein' apart
Handcuff her, keep my chains on
Glow in the dark
Layin' on your thighs, cellulite the blunt
Got stripes, I'ma, oh
Get, get it from the back like footlocker, uh
None of these little girls look like her
Oh, mama only call when she got that ooh-na-na
You know I gotta do something
But I cruise through and cruise through your waters

'Cause you give endlessly

I need you to hand it over (Oh, it ain't no problem)

Give me the wheel

Give me the wheel
I got so much left to say
I wanna bake you cake
Maybe we'll listen to Frank
Baby, come home
Show you the deal
Show you it's real
You got so much in the way
I'll take it off of your plate
Okay

I wanna steer you, babe
I wanna kiss on your face
I wanna do this for days
I wanna give you a taste
I wanna sip on your face
Now we gon' finish that cake
Okay
