

Until I Met You

Alina Baraz

One thing you won't ever see
Is a rose without a thorn
Life ain't like the movie scenes
What's love without a flaw?
If only I knew
Would it have led me to you?
Patience and communication
I'm still learning those
Took a couple heartbreaks and some tears for me to grow
And now that I grew
I'm finally ready for you

Take our time with this one
Let's just stand and not fall in love
You can't win till you lose
I didn't know love
Till I met you
Till I met you

Let me be your peace of mind at night when we're alone
Just know you can talk to me when you're feelin' vulnerable
Can you promise (Can you promise me, babe)
Through every sun and moon that you'll be honest?

I was just focusin', takin' some time to escape
Appreciatin' how they make wine from grapes
What is it 'bout Cuban cigars?
Is it the taste?
Should go to France and cop Venice bottles by the case
I just had a discussion
'Bout some woman's philandering husband
She love him
Do marriages last anymore is the question?
'Cause I done went down the line with many women who fine
Gave 'em Bags of Vuitton
Peek-a-boo Fendi too
There's unspeakable things they do
Sneakin' with other dudes
Lost your sweetness, you be freakin'
It's me that you accuse
Why?
And I'm getting too old for this, this is loneliness
Homebody needin' someone to kiss and light the OG with
And to chill and listen to oldies with
In raw silk 'cause that's just a cozy fit
I swear my life is gettin' stressful
It wasn't special 'til I met you

Take our time with this one (Wasn't special 'til I met you)
Let's just stand and not fall in love
You can't win till you lose
(Yeah, Alina Baraz)
I didn't know love (Nas)
Till I met you
Till I met you
Till I met you
Till I met you
Till I met you
