

Do Not Disturb

ALINA

You showed up and made me feel better
But better - it was just a lie
Before you I felt that I couldn't be loved
You proved I was right

You showed up and made me feel empty
Of anything anyone needs
When did I get to be so goddamn useless?
I guess that's my cue to leave

Trying to get over your words
But I'm tired and sick of not being heard
So I put up a sign
So I can't get hurt
It reads, "Do Not Disturb"

You showed up and made me feel perfect
At least till I did something wrong
With my ego destroyed - does it look black and blue?
Now each bruise reminds me of you

You showed up and made me feel awful
With the unlawful things that you did
Forgave you back then, but I've grown the wiser
Finally got sense in my head

Trying to get rid of the scars
But I'm tired and sick of being torn apart
So I put up a sign
So I can't get hurt
It reads, "Do Not Disturb"

Do not disturb
Please do not disturb
Do not disturb
Do not disturb

Knocked down my walls again
Blocked my defense
Tore down my sign, tried to make me forget
All your false promises, your empty words
How'd I fall in again?
How'd I get hurt again?

(Do not disturb, do not disturb, do not disturb, do not disturb)
(Do not disturb, do not disturb, do not disturb, do not disturb)
