

Loved

Alisa Turner

Nothing I do
Could ever shake You
You're never mistaken surprised or undone
I won't resist
Surrendered to this
Hands reaching up
I am loved

Oh hallelujah
My heart knows the truth of
A love that has never let go
Over and over You pull me in closer
'Til I just stop fighting and know
I am loved

You never run
You never hide
You see my worst
But You don't close Your eyes
Just as I am
And until I'm changed
Your kindness will keep me
I am loved

Thundering over the ache of my sin
You just keep saying again and again
That nowhere I've run to
And nothing I've been
Changes who You say I am
