Can you face it? Can you look?
Or are you ashamed of what you've done?
Does he haunt you? Does he hurt?
Is it too much to bear just to let it all out, are you there?

'Cause I like the falling apart, 'cause sometimes it's too hard
Can't tune out tonight
I like the crawls in the dark, so I sleep like a shark
Can't tune out tonight

Can you taste it? Is he sweet?
Or will you spit it out through gritted teeth?
Just embrace it, let it burst
'Cause the world is much more than the bubble you're in, yeah,
I swear

'Cause I like the falling apart, 'cause sometimes it's too hard
Can't tune out tonight
I like the crawls in the dark, so I sleep like a shark
Can't tune out tonight

Should I go outside
Should I go outside
Should I go outside
Should I go outside

'Cause I like the falling apart, 'cause sometimes it's too hard
Can't tune out tonight
I like the crawls in the dark, so I sleep like a shark
Can't tune out tonight
Sometimes it's too hard, sometimes it's too hard
'Cause I like the falling apart, 'cause sometimes it's too hard
Can't tune out tonight
