

Superstitious

Alissic

Are you superstitious?
'Cause I'm dealing the cards
Seven years of bad luck
If you ever break my heart

Words can be a dagger
You're walking under ladders
You better tread carefully (mmh)
'Cause you're messing with some juju
Don't you know it's gonna haunt you
If you try and dig a grave for me?

'Cause lately I
I get the feeling but I bit my tongue
The sound of the violence louder than the gun
It's freaking me out, I'm paranoid
So count your blessings
'Cause something wicked this way comes

Are you superstitious?
'Cause I'm dealing the cards
Seven years of bad luck
If you ever break my heart
Obsession can be vicious
I know your teeth are sharp
Seven years of bad luck
If you ever break my heart
(So don't break it)

Your energy is lonely
Abusive on the lowkey
It's giving me the heebie-jeebs
Think you need a little sunshine
'Cause you always try to steal mine
And I'm running out of sympathy

'Cause lately I (lately I)
I get the feel like I just want to run
The sound of your voice is louder than their love
You're freaking me out, so paranoid
I count my blessings
'Cause something wicked this way comes

Are you superstitious?
'Cause I'm dealing the cards
Seven years of bad luck
If you ever break my heart
Obsession can be vicious
I know your teeth are sharp
Seven years of bad luck
If you ever break my heart
(So don't break it)

Se você não tem o que dizer
Se você não tem o que dizer
Se você não tem o que dizer
Shut up

Are you superstitious?
'Cause I'm dealing the cards
Seven years of bad luck
If you ever break my heart
Obsession can be vicious
I know your teeth are sharp
Seven years of bad luck
If you ever break my heart
(So don't break it)

Seven years of bad luck
If you ever break my heart
