Only Forever

Alive Like Me

If I'm dead and this is playing at my funeral
Then to my body I beg
rest your tired head

You were exactly who you promised you would be Just rest in peace

You knew that this day was coming
They said that this never ends well Oh well
Don't be afraid this is just forever

So let me say what I've been dying to say My words are spoken for but I'll try to explain

Yeah I'll try to explain

And there's nothing that will stop the clocks from from spinning, no cure for time itself
It's not a curse to be lifted Don't blink won't want to miss it

It'll pass you by and you've heard a thousand times now
It's not a curse to be lifted
But it's enough to make you lose your mind

While they're all searching for things that don't exist (For things that don't exist)
We will be just fine knowing that we lived

Unless you think there's somewhere else you have to be [x2]
Just rest in peace [x2]

And you can bury me but you'll never bury my words

You'll never bury my words (Words) [x3]

It's not a curse to be lifted
but it's enough to make you lose your mind

They're running down all the time they could have spent
we will be just fine knowing that we lived

Unless you think there’s somewhere else you have to be

In my head I’ll find a place for every memory to hide I’ll spend forever losing track of time

You were exactly who you promised you would be [x2]
