

Said It Twice

Alive Like Me

Still in bed
You and I
Game of chess
Win or die
Talk it out
Say it twice
Stepped out for air
Never came back inside

Don't think you meant what you said in the moment
Must be why I feel okay
You said the wrong thing with too much emotion
Still didn't turn me away

I wish you would've said it twice
Another way of cutting the ties
Say you're moving on with your life
Maybe that would change my mind

Felt like a brick to the head in that moment
Swear that I'm doing okay
You said the wrong thing with too much emotion
Still didn't turn me away

Talk so rough
But all I hear is love
Don't believe a single word you say

I wish you would've said it twice
Another way of cutting the ties
Say you're moving on with your life
Maybe that would change my mind

If only you had said it twice
Drew a little harder line
Say you're moving on with your life
Maybe that would change my mind

Talk so rough
But all I hear is love
Don't believe a single word you say
Talk so loud
And yet it calms me down
No you didn't mean it anyway

Talk so rough
But all I hear is love
Don't believe a single word you say
Talk so loud
And yet it calms me down
No you didn't mean it anyway

I wish you would've said it twice
Another way of cutting the ties
Say you're moving on with your life
Maybe that would change my mind

If only you had said it twice
Drew a little harder line
Just say you hate me one more time
Cause maybe that would change my mind
