

I Held Her In My Arms

Alkaline Trio

I'm gnawing on the knowledge that I have been burnt.
And I'm learning things that I should've already learnt.

Everyone I ever knew was so kind and coy.
I was with a girl, but it felt like I was with a boy.

I can't even remember...if we were lovers, or if I just wanted to

But I held her in my arms,
I held her in my arms
I held her in my arms; but it wasn't you

I will not kill the one thing I love
In this world of wreckage, I look above.
I say, "Help me, Lord, help me understand;
What it means to be a boy and what it means to be a man."

I can't even remember if we were lovers, or if I just wanted to

But I held her in my arms,
I held her in my arms
I held her in my arms; but it wasn't you

I'm gnawing on the knowledge that I have been burnt.
And I'm learning things that I should've already learnt.

Everyone I ever knew was so kind and coy.
I was with a girl, but it felt like I was with a boy.

(2x) I can't even remember...if we were lovers, or if I just wanted to

But I held her in my arms,
I held her in my arms
I held her in my arms; but it wasn't you