

Happiness

All About She

If you cry, tell me the love song and I'll sing it
Don't know why that my voice ain't getting through
I'm inside the saddest symphony of broken bands
Now I cry, you never seem to change your tune

No I don't wanna sing happiness, no no no
No I don't wanna sing happiness, no no no
No I don't wanna sing happiness, no no no
No I don't wanna sing happiness, no no no,
No no no no

No debt, you don't care enough for the both of us
No way, you give me nothing to give back
And I crave you'll take love till I'm running out
Move out my way, it seems there's nothing more to say

No I don't wanna sing happiness, no no no
No I don't wanna sing happiness, no no no
No I don't wanna sing happiness, no no no
No I don't wanna sing happiness, no no no,
No no no no

You are the only thing
I need to keep me whole

No I don't wanna sing happiness, no no no
No I don't wanna sing happiness, no no no
No I don't wanna sing happiness, no no no
No I don't wanna sing happiness, no no no,
No no no no
