

Cry For Help

All For Metal

After the epic, but victorious battle against the shadow demon
Which took us to Valhalla and back
We received a cry for help from far eastern lands
In the year of the dragon, evil tries to take control
Of the land of the lotus flower
We are on a journey, to carry out our sacred mission
The eternal fight against darkness
Side by side with our brothers and sisters of steel
Shoulder to shoulder with the dragon [?]
The samurais of light, and our Valkyries in the sky
We go to battle together
No matter the sacrifice, we will survive.
