

The Day Of Hammerfall

All For Metal

We've tasted every pain of life, in agony we cried
And every thought of vengeance
Grew the darkness in each mind
Whatever fate may lie ahead, it's reckoning for us
Relentlessly the gods strike from above

Welcome to the day of hammerfall
For our time has just begun
The day of hammerfall
May our kingdom come

Welcome to the day of hammerfall
Let all the sinners here be judged
Come find your place and return to grace
You are one of us by blood

Welcome to the day of hammerfall
The day of hammerfall
The day of hammerfall

Don't try to lock those demons out
Don't hide, what made you strong
We'll rise above the ashes
And the world shall hear our song
Whatever path you walked upon
What leads your way to us
The gods prepare our path now from above

Welcome to the day of hammerfall
For our time has just begun
The day of hammerfall
May our kingdom come

Welcome to the day of hammerfall
Let all the sinners here be judged
Come find your place and return to grace
You are one of us by blood

Welcome to the day of hammerfall
The day of hammerfall
The day of hammerfall

This world has come to a bitter end
It's near, the day of the apocalypse
Thor's hammer striking down to the ground
And erases all but fear

Welcome to the day of hammerfall
For our time has just begun
The day of hammerfall
May our kingdom come

Welcome to the day of hammerfall
Let all the sinners here be judged
Come find your place and return to grace
You are one of us by blood

Welcome to the day of hammerfall
The day of hammerfall
The day of hammerfall
