

However Long

All Get Out

I hear you speak and it form a statue
Now I'm stuck in your memory
Then I stutter and it makes me feel bad
It's forever in the photograph
Then I see you I can't remember
Were you the winner in the dream last night
Am I the corner of your silver lining
I'm just a knot in the same necklace again

Holding fast to you
Can't get you out my head
Everything I hear is you instead

However long it's gonna be
I can guarantee
I'm gonna miss you
Miss you

How many times have I said I need you
Just a few in a quiet room
Pretty sure that no one ever heard me
Still you shake like you hear me think
I try to find you in our busy hall way
Your cashed candle in the window sill
I'm self-possessed but you break my focus
You are clearly the end of my loneliest streak

However long it's gonna be
I can guarantee
I'm gonna miss you
Miss you

I fast for you
Don't ever leave my head
Anything I hear is you instead

However long it's gonna be
I can guarantee
I'm gonna miss you
Miss you
However long it's gonna be
I can always guarantee
I miss you
I miss you
