All Get Out

I was flirting I was breaking a bone
You couldn't help me, you didn't know
I was angry with my head in my knees
I tried once to pray, I forgot to believe
I was sad, I was mad
I found it hard to conceive
Couldn't birth another doctrine
Couldn't plant another seed but I

I didn't break it, it just fell

A fading light led me out of the dark
Like a ghost in my past or a man in my yard
Wrote a note 'cause I was bothered and floored
Low are the cries but man they've been here before
Don't be scared, love your fear
Be a man for a year
See naked is humble
Take off all of the shame just be here

I didn't break it
I didn't ever know it could
I didn't break it, it just fell

You know it all by movement
You know those washed out foot prints
You know it all by movement
By movement, by movement

What exactly are you waiting for Hoping all of this would open doors
Make its way through the corridor
Show them what all of the movement's for

You know it all by movement
You know those washed out foot prints
You know it all by movement
By movement, by movement

I make a call it's 'cause I feel that it's right
And I owe nobody here a simple word past tonight
No excuse, no demand, no explanation of men
Why I do, what I do, why I call it a plan
Hold your breath and bite your tongue until there's blood in your mouth
Then spit what you've earned onto the cleanest of ground
Don't ask me, don't tell me what we already know
My simplest of answers is a God damned no

I didn't break it
No I didn't ever know I could
I didn't break it, it just fell

You know it all by movement
You know those washed out foot prints
You know it all by movement
By movement, by movement
