

Trouble

All Get Out

I'm inspired, you've got priors
Trouble getting ready today
Greenlit morning, you're in mourning
No one ever said it's easy to be
You're in waiting, don't you know
I hate new friends, only new friends
I don't think I'm ready for them
Reject old ones, I'm an old one
No one ever said it's easy to be

Past the point with you
You know I gotta let it go
It's easier for me to be near the bottom shelf

Sit in traffic, I hate traffic
I don't think I want it today
Eastbound travel, I speak babbel
Trouble forming words of late
Don't berate me, I berate me
You don't get to talk that way
Speak to strangers, I'm in danger
No one ever said it's easy to be

Past the point with you
You know I gotta let it go
It's easier for me to be near the bottom shelf
Laughing to the point of view
Maybe passing out
It's better you than me
Of course when you're the passenger

Some of us don't know
How you get so far removed from all of it
Claim the lonely air
Say I'm the only one
It only took the burning down of everything around

Past the point with you
You know I gotta let it go
It's easier for me to be near the bottom shelf
Laughing to the point of view
Maybe passing out
It's better you than me
Of course when you're the passenger

You're in waiting, don't you know
You're in waiting, don't you know
You're in waiting, don't you know
You're in waiting, don't you know
