Whatever

All Get Out

I wrote your name inside my window
Think I spelled it wrong again
I'm at my best when you look happy
When you finally get your win

Whatever you wanted
Whatever you needed
Whatever, you want it
Whatever, you need it

There came a lull and now I'm empty
Think you were right about my friends
No one really likes a quitter
So be an author, not a trend
(Take your time, it's all you really wanted)

Whatever you wanted
Whatever you needed
Whatever, you want it
Whatever, you need it

I don't want you waiting
So make up all of your mind
Stop wasting all of your time on my plans
And I don't want you praying for me
'Cause it's not what I work
I'm okay if only my words will make it out

Whatever you wanted
Whatever you needed
Whatever, you want it
Whatever, you need it
