

Green Flash

All Good Things

Is it a man or an alien?
Crash landed in the backyard
Look at them
Giant eyes
Shiny like titanium
10 feet tall
Calling all the cops again
I swear I'm lookin at 'em

I got the footage from the weatherman
Radar picking up a craft high hovering
Over the lake
I saw a shape I couldn't comprehend
Green flash then a bang and it's gone again
Don't know what's happening

Are you gonna save us from ourselves?
(There's a fire in the sky)
Are you gonna to take us all to hell?
(Do we live? Do we die?)

Are you here to change the world for the better?
Or light it up and burn us all together?
Maybe we're the last to know
We're not alone
We're not alone

My camera couldn't pick it up
Light flooded in the room
I couldn't shake it off
Super sonic felt a boom
Breaking all the glass
I woke up in my bedroom
Couple weeks had passed
I swear they probed me in the

Are you gonna save us from ourselves?
(There's a fire in the sky)
Are you gonna to take us all to hell?
(Do we live? Do we die?)

Are you here to change the world for the better?
Or light it up and burn us all together?
Maybe we're the last to know
We're not alone
We're not alone

Feels like my life is over
Goodbye it's nice to know ya
Might disappear forever
They'll destroy me
The whistleblower

I look around they're everywhere
They don't believe me they don't care
I'm not insane you're unaware
I swear there's something in the air

Are you gonna save us from ourselves?
(There's a fire in the sky)
Are you gonna to take us all to hell?
(Do we live? Do we die?)

Are you here to change the world for the better?
Or light it up and burn us all together?
Maybe we're the last to know
We're not alone
We're not alone
