

I Surrender

All Good Things

You say a word
And the ground breaks underneath me
No you don't have to try to defeat me

You watch me fall apart
And slip into the dark

My will is wearing down
I can't recall why I resisted
Thy will be done
My god my mind is getting twisted

Your will is my command
Now it's slipping from my hands
Slipping from my hands

I surrender
I surrender
I surrender
I surrender

This is war
This is love
This is not what I expected
Now my heart has been infected
Feel like I could die

Through the eyes of your storm
You oversee the agony
You might just be the death of me
But you make me feel alive
The floor is giving way
This is all that I can hold
My back will finally break
You'll have me for your own
Your sedatives addict me
Kicking and screaming
Limbs without feeling
So come and get me

I surrender
I surrender
I surrender

I'm am a prisoner
I'm your guest
But still I'll
Fight you
To the death

Trapped like rat
Subject to tests
Give up my life
I'll give my life
At your request

The puppet's hand

Inside of me
Controls it all
My destiny

This living hell
Has come to life
Open the gates
I'll stay a while

The ground will split
From underneath
My heart will play
It's final beat

I surrender
I surrender
I surrender
I surrender
I surrender
I surrender
I surrender
I surrender

The ground will split
From underneath
My heart will play
It's final beat
