

Machines

All Good Things

Hands to the sky, I swore I'd try
Searching for a better life
They would take us far from home
Far from all the things we know
Used to feel my body shake, I won't
Ever break another bone
We ran out of luck I know
Now we're indestructible

There's nothing more that you can do
So run if you want to

('Cause we are machines)
Started with a stone-cold heart
We don't need to breathe
(We are machines)
Cities of resistance falling
Under our feet
(We are machines)
Metal and emotionless
No battlefield can hinder us
'Cause we are, we are machines
'Cause we are, we are machines

Remember the way we used to feel
Before we were made from steel
We will take the field again
An army of a thousand men
It's time to rise up, we're breaking through
Now that we've been improved
Everything has been restored
I'm ready for the art of war

There's nothing more you can do
So you can run if you want to

('Cause we are machines)
Started with a stone-cold heart
We don't need to breathe
(We are machines)
Cities of resistance falling
Under our feet
(We are machines)
Metal and emotionless
No battlefield can hinder us
'Cause we are, we are machines
'Cause we are, we are machines

('Cause we are machines)
Started with a stone-cold heart
We don't need to breathe
(We are machines)
Cities of resistance falling
Under our feet
(We are machines)
Metal and emotionless
No battlefield can hinder us

'Cause we are, we are machines
'Cause we are, we are machines
