

Ready For This

All Good Things

Living breathing for a single moment
We've left everything we had being
Time to roll brothers out and over
Nothing to lose, nothing but time

Are you sure you wanna take this road now
Are you certain that you're gonna win
Did they tell you that it could be over
Over and done before you begin

Everything you know will not prepare you
Nothing's gonna change if you resist
Everything you got bring it on we dare you
Nothing will compare to this

It's an avalanche (Are you ready for this)
It's a critical mass (Are you ready for this)
It's you massive attack (Are you ready for this)
It will kick your ass (Are you ready for this)

Bring the fire
and you take your chances
Start the fight
We'll bring your answer
Oohh, ready for this
Are you ready for this

Like a stone we're colder, harder
Like a rock we're standing strong
Never doubt we will hold out but Never fear it won't be long

Are you sure you want to take this road now?
Are you sure you want to make this stand?
Do you want to shout and scream your glory
Just to have it taken out your hands

Everything you know will not prepare you
Nothing's gonna change if you resist
Everything you got bring it on we dare you
Nothing will compare to this

It's an avalanche (Are you ready for this)
It's a critical mass (Are you ready for this)
It's you massive attack (Are you ready for this)
It will kick your ass (Are you ready for this)

Bring the fire
and you take your chances
Start the fight
We'll bring your answer
Oohh, ready for this
Are you ready for this

Build your walls
Fortify
Hold your enemy lines

Lock and load
Or big out
But you won't slow us down
