

This Is For The Fallen

All Good Things

One come all brothers on your feet
We're rising from the dirt
We're rising from defeat
All our hopes and all our dreams lost in ruin torn at seams
Easy come and easy go never let the demons show
And now the beast within
Is crawling back again
And finally a dynasty will come to an end

This is for the fallen
Destiny is calling
This is for the ones who rose to fight and lost it all and
This is who remembers
So much more than vengeance
This is taking back the crown so they will not forget us
For all we sacrificed
This time we will all win
All together rise
Cause this is for the fallen

All this blood
What did you expect
It's not the kind of thing
We'll forgive and forget
We're stronger than we've ever been
Sharper minds and thicker skin
Live and breathe our strategy
Calculating victory
And now the beast within
Is crawling back again
And finally a dynasty will come to an end

This is for the fallen
Destiny is calling
This is for the ones who rose to fight and lost it all and
This is who remembers
So much more than vengeance
This is taking back the crown so they will not forget us
For all we sacrificed
This time we will all win
All together rise
Cause this is for the fallen

We will rise
Out of the cold dark past
Into the light once more
And we will raise our flag
We will rise

This is for the fallen
This is for the ones who rose to fight and lost it all and
This is who remembers

This is taking back the crown so they will not forget us
For all we sacrificed
This time we will all win
All together rise

For all we sacrificed
This time we will all win
All together rise
Fallen fallen
