

Gone Forever

All Out War

The signs of the times. War machines spring to life, and we sit and wonder why? When we bought into all their lies. Allowed our leaders to steal our rights. Followed like dogs - without a fight. Fear - it rules our minds. Leaders profit, we face demise. A freedom of choice we once had. Gone forever, we all are damned. Those in power, they fuel the hate. Profit from our fall from grace. The final war, it is now at hand. Blood for profit, we shall be damned. In the name of God. Freedom cannot be achieved, when it's used for greed and lies. Leaders embrace power and condemn us all to our demise. We are condemned. Condemned to fall, as our leaders gain. We all shall suffer as pawns. Pawns in political games. Peace in the world. This idea won't turn a dime. Profit by killing. Our world's most legal crime.
