

Testament In Motion

All Saints

Through the rain
To a new dawn, a new day
Tears have gone out to sea and washed away
Through it all I am standing mighty tall
Thrilled to see as I watch you fade to grey

Meet me down by the water baby
I'll be laying by the apple tree
I take a bite but I won't falter
The road to redemption is long and lonely
You were strong but I'm a fighter
My strength won't let me down
I roll on down the river to the ocean
Testament in motion

I get up, I get up
I get up now
I get up, I get up
I get up baby
I get up, I get up
I get up now
I'm getting up
Getting up, getting up

Through the rain
To a new dawn, a new day
Tears have gone out to sea and washed away
Through it all I am standing mighty tall
Clear to see as I watch you fade to grey

I'll be gone by the morning baby
You keep talking as you watch me leave
I'll give a smile as you crumble
The springs in your bed will be calling out for me
Do me wrong so I'll retire
You can't keep me down
All alone down the river to the ocean
Testament in motion

I get up, I get up
I get up now
I get up, I get up
I get up baby
I get up, I get up
I get up now
I'm getting up
Getting up, getting up

Through the rain
To a new dawn, a new day
Tears have gone out to sea and washed away
Through it all I am standing mighty tall
Clear to see as I watch you fade to grey

You thought that I wouldn't survive
Down on my knees I'll be crying
No boy not me not ever

I was born to be brave, I was born to recover
You thought I couldn't be revived
Down on my knees I'd be dying
No boy not me not ever
I was born to be brave, I was born to recover

Through the rain
Tears have gone out to sea and washed away
Through it all I am standing mighty tall
Clear to see as I watch you fade to grey
