Prisoner Of War

All Shall Perish

I have made a lasting picture among The faces The night hath plaqued Lost it all lie that your fathers Have fought for am I the defiant One Along a saving grace Neglected left to the dogs Betrayed they've fed me to the fires Places in fields where near sounds Of terror Fill our Ears; Vacant sounds Consuming all around Faces lost in the night swallowed Amongst the decay Lost in a time when we still felt Alive the illusions has made us its Slave Taken by the fear of Desolation I stay awake throughout sounds of despair up holding my attenti on Why has it all come to this? This life has not finished. Help me A simple man without needs I have not lost my will to breathe This can not betray the good in me I'm not paying for your beliefs Pain is enough
