

Dude... That's Freaking Awesome!

All Star United

The party scene is beckoning, but no one's left you recognized
Commencement day, it's hard to take when you're on summer number five

Your friends all left to chase their plans, their dreams and their degrees in hand

And technically you're still a sophomore

Here's to you, still going nuts, throwing down and throwing up on the rug

Dude...that's freaking awesome!

Freshman girls are after you, til you drink so much you puke on your shoes

Dude...that's freaking awesome!

What's her name just got engaged, it's weird to think you used to date

The wedding aisle would cramp your style, you've got the freedom now to play

That girl that you've been hitting on she saw you dance and now she's gone

Her girlfriend said she's doing laundry

Here's to never growing up, falling in and out of love, you got dumped

Dude...that's freaking awesome!

But that's OK and that's alright you'll be partying all night, serves her right

Dude...that's freaking awesome!

We all know you're crazy cause you tell us all the time

When you've had a few too many and you call

I know it's your life, but do you really want to waste it all?

Here's to working through this stage before there's no one half your age left to say

Dude...that's freaking awesome!

Here's to purpose, here's to plans learning how to be a man if you can

Dude...that's freaking awesome!

Cause no one likes it when you're rude and beer is not a kind of food, no it's true

Dude...that's freaking awesome!

Waking naked on the lawn, wondering where the good time's gone, lost your bong

Dude...that's freaking awesome!

You quit your job so you could play Word of Warcraft every day anyway

Dude...that's freaking awesome!
