All That Remains

28

Faded to black holding my tears back
While I stand up straight
Blood on my face
Is all I see

Detonate
I'm the master every last breath no fear
No disaster
Instigate
To seal my fate

I'm not living for dying
My kingdoms arising
Throw loss on the pyre
And strike on the iron

Devine
Detach from desire
Accept and inspire
Devine
Breath in and breath out
Cause now it's all in your hands

Crashing down
Pull the mask back feel the wall crack
With the slightest contact
Now

Contemplating and bearing witness
I know the worth of my own existence

Devine
Detach from desire
Accept and inspire
Devine
Breath in and breath out
Cause now it's all in your hands
It's all in your hands
It's all in your hands
It's all in your hands

Crashing down
Pull the mask back feel the wall crack
With the slightest contact

Perceive the evil of treason and make
Moves carefully
Their verses coerced and worthless
And cheering treachery

Perceive the evil of treason and make
Moves carefully
Their verses coerced and worthless
Cheering their treachery

I'm not living for dying
My kingdoms arising

Devine
Detach from desire
Accept and inspire
Devine
Cause now it's all in your hands

It's all in your hands
